

Privacy Policy

Last updated: July 2026

At Think You Know Me? (TKYM?), we respect your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal data. We collect only the information necessary to provide the game, maintain your account, process Premium purchases, and ensure a safe and reliable multiplayer experience.

When you create an account, we may collect information such as your email address, display name, language preferences, device information, and technical data required to operate the service. Anonymous diagnostic and usage data may also be collected to improve performance, fix bugs, and enhance the overall player experience.

Think You Know Me? (TKYM?) is a social party game where players voluntarily answer questions about themselves and each other. Answers are shared only within the active game session and are used solely for gameplay. We do not use your personal answers for advertising, profiling, or sell them to third parties.

To operate the game, we may use trusted third-party services such as authentication providers, cloud hosting, payment processors, analytics, and crash reporting tools. These providers process data only to the extent necessary to deliver their services and are required to protect your information.

Your personal data is processed securely using modern encryption and industry-standard security measures. We retain your information only for as long as necessary to provide the service, comply with legal obligations, or resolve disputes. You may request access to, correction of, or deletion of your personal data at any time, subject to applicable legal requirements.

Our website may use cookies or similar technologies to maintain login sessions, remember your preferences, and improve the user experience. Where required by law, you will be asked to provide your consent before optional cookies are used.

By using Think You Know Me? (TKYM?), you agree to the processing of your data as described in this Privacy Policy. If you have any questions regarding privacy or wish to exercise your data protection rights, please contact us at support@tkymgame.com.
